

Whitney Stock Exchange

Let's start off with a simple question...

Name some famous entrepreneurs or their companies that are in the market.

Wow, such great responses!

- While those people/companies you mentioned are powerful, they are but one of many that make up the world economy
- The stock market is usually controlled by the geographic location of the area.
  - Ex: Chinese Shanghai Stock Market Index is located in Shanghai

What our goals are for this club

- The main objective of this club is to make it a learning experience, for you folks and us
  - Introduce you to financial knowledge
  - Learn how to make good financial decisions in the future
  - Fundamental Concepts for you to have the general knowledge of investing basics.
- More specifically, we will learn about
  - What you should invest your money in (mutual funds, bonds, stocks, etc.
  - How to understand financial news and how world events impact the economy
- But most importantly, have fun!
  - Apply what you learn in our MarketWatch competition
  - After you begin to understand more about how the markets work, we hope that you will find the courage to open your own stock market account and try to invest with your own money

Why we started this club

Bryant:

- A 20 Time Project
- Investing on Steam
- Fun, and also great learning experience

Janmesh:

- Had an interest in investing for a while now, wants to continue pursuing it while sharing knowledge with others. Found it interesting through books

We want to teach students to prepare for their adult lives ahead.

Navigating MarketWatch's User Interface

MarketWatch is one of the many other trading platforms we will be using. In order to enhance the quality of the lessons, we plan host small-competitions between you and your peers.

The Winner of our Summer Game is ...
